2. Eligible applicants will be considered automatically for awards at the point of MBA Interview. There will be up to 16 awards available for 2025/26 academic year. Awards may be exhausted early in the application cycle; early MBA programme applications are therefore encouraged.

5. To receive awards applicants must become registered students at Newcastle University in the 2025-26 academic year for the Full-time MBA programme. Awards cannot be deferred to later academic years.
6. Fully sponsored students do not qualify for these awards. This includes any students with alternative full fee scholarships or full sponsorship that covers tuition fees and maintenance costs. The University reserves the right to suspend payment and recover any scholarship amounts already made to students with full funding.
7. Scholarships will not be confirmed unless applicants satisfy all conditions related to their admissions offer.
8. Applicants may apply for and/or be considered for more than one scholarship or award offered by the University but can only receive one award. If successful in being offered more than one scholarship or award, the applicant will receive the highest value award with any lower value awards being reallocated to another applicant. It is the applicant's responsibility to check the regulations for all funding opportunities to which they apply to ensure eligibility. The University reserves the right to suspend payment and recover any scholarship amounts already made to ineligible applicants.

9. Awardees will commit to supporting some marketing activities to support Newcastle University Business School's recruitment and marketing campaigns, this may include sharing and highlighting their experiences on the programme and at the school.
10. These scholarships are for new students entering the full-time MBA programme in September 2025. Current students registered at the University who have already commenced their postgraduate degree are not eligible. Awards cannot be made retrospectively.
11. The Business School reserves the right to vary all or any scholarship awards at its sole discretion.
