

Stage 3, Welcome Week

You may hear this week being called induction week or welcome week. In the School of English Literature, Language and Linguistics (SELLL), we prefer Welcome Week, as we are welcoming you back to our city, Campus, and community.

The week has been planned to give you:

- Opportunities to think about life after University by hearing from alumni who recently graduated from SELLL
- More information about our dissertation capstones to ensure that you get the most out of your independent work
- A chance to reconnect with your personal tutors and get involved in the SELLL community
